

National Tracking Poll #2503069
March 21-27, 2025

Crosstabulation Results

Methodology:

This poll was conducted between March 21-March 27, 2025 among a sample of 1032 Teachers. The interviews were conducted online and the data were weighted to approximate a target sample of Teachers based on demGender, age, demRace4, demHisp, xraceeth, reg4, demGenderage, and TS-dem4. Results from the full survey have a margin of error of plus or minus 3 percentage points.

44	Table TS10: Based on what you know, or have heard from others... In general, what is your opinion of 'charter schools' in K–12 education?	103
45	Table TS11: Charter schools are public schools that have more control over their own budget, staff, and curriculum, and are exempt from many existing public school regulations. In general, what is your opinion of public charter schools?	106
46	Table TS12: Based on what you know, or have heard from others... In general, what is your opinion of 'school vouchers' in K–12 education?	109
47	Table TS13: A school voucher system allows parents the option of sending their child to the school of their choice, whether that school is public or private, including both religious and non-religious schools. If this policy were adopted, tax dollars currently allocated to a school district would be allocated to parents in the form of a 'school voucher' to pay partial or full tuition for the child's school. In general, what is your opinion of school voucher systems?	112
48	Table TS14: Based on what you know, or have heard from others... In general, what is your opinion of 'education savings accounts' in K–12 education?	115

49	Table TS15: An "education savings account" in K–12 education – often called an ESA – establishes for parents a government-authorized savings account with restricted, but multiple uses for educational purposes. Parents can then use these funds to pay for: school tuition; tutoring; online education programs; therapies for students with special needs; textbooks or other instructional materials; or save for future college expenses. In general, what is your opinion of an ESA system?	118

56	Table TS96: Based on what you know, or have heard from others... In general, what is your opinion of 'open enrollment' policies in K–12 education?	133
57	Table TS97: An 'open enrollment' policy in K-12 education allows a student enrolled in public school to select and transfer to a public school of their choice, rather than attending a school based on where they live. A student can be allowed to transfer to a public school in another district (called 'INTER-district'). The policy is based on a first come, first served process until districts are no longer able to accommodate new students. In general, what is your opinion of an open enrollment system?	136
58	Table TS101a: Some have proposed an 'teacher savings account" in K–12 education – which would establish for teachers a government-authorized savings account with restricted, but multiple uses for classroom and professional development purposes. Teachers can then use these funds to pay for: classroom supplies, books/downloads, lesson plans, instructional materials, computer hardware/software or other equipment, or additional training through meetings, conferences, or webinars. Some amount can be saved for future school-year expenses. In general, what is your opinion of this proposed teacher savings account system?	139

Table TS13: A school voucher system allows parents the option of sending their child to the school of their choice, whether that school is public or private, including both religious and non-religious schools. If this policy were adopted, tax dollars currently allocated to a school district would be allocated to parents in the form of a 'school voucher' to pay partial or full tuition for the child's school. In general, what is your opinion of school voucher systems?

Table TS13: A school voucher system allows parents the option of sending their child to the school of their choice, whether that school is public or private, including both religious and non-religious schools. If this policy were adopted, tax dollars currently allocated to a school district would be allocated to parents in the form of a 'school voucher' to pay partial or full tuition for the child's school. In general, what is your opinion of school voucher systems?

Table TS15: An "education savings account" in K–12 education – often called an ESA – establishes for parents a government-authorized savings account with restricted, but multiple uses for educational purposes. Parents can then use these funds to pay for: school tuition; tutoring; online education programs; therapies for students with special needs; textbooks or other instructional materials; or save for future college expenses. Table TS15: An "education savings account" in K–12 education – often called an ESA – establishes for parents a government-authorized savings account with restricted, but multiple uses for educational purposes. Parents can then use these funds to pay for: school tuition; tutoring; online education programs; therapies for students with special needs; textbooks or other instructional materials; or save for future college expenses. In general, what is your opinion of an ESA system?

Table TS97: An 'open enrollment' policy in K-12 education allows a student enrolled in public school to select and transfer to a public school of their choice, rather than attending a school based on where they live. A student can be allowed to transfer to a public school in another district (called 'INTER-district'). The policy is based on a first come, first served process until districts are no longer able to accommodate new students. In general, what is your opinion of an open enrollment system?

Table TS97: An 'open enrollment' policy in K-12 education allows a student enrolled in public school to select and transfer to a public school of their choice, rather than attending a school based on where they live. A student can be allowed to transfer to a public school in another district (called 'INTER-district'). The policy is based on a first come, first served process until districts are no longer able to accommodate new students. In general, what is your opinion of an open enrollment system?

Table TS101a: Some have proposed an ‘teacher savings account’ in K–12 education – which would establish for teachers a government-authorized savings account with restricted, but multiple uses for classroom and professional development purposes. Teachers can then use these funds to pay for: classroom supplies, books/downloads, lesson plans, instructional materials, computer hardware/software or other equipment, or additional training through meetings, conferences, or webinars. Some amount can be saved for future school-year expenses. In general, what is your opinion of this proposed teacher savings account system?

Table TS161: A 'refundable tax credit' is a credit taxpayers can get as a refund even if you don't owe any tax. A refundable tax credit in K-12 education can allow families to cover qualifying expenses, such as private school tuition and fees, tutoring, textbooks, standardized assessments, or homeschooling costs. In general, what is your opinion of refundable tax credits for such educational purposes?
